

Hi, We're BikeCitizens and we're looking for a fulltime

Communication and Editorial Intern

To join our team in Berlin.

Sounds like you? You are just one bike ride away:

We're a team of 25+ employees running an award winning project in great and charming offices in Graz and Berlin-Mitte. We started out by creating the world's first bicycle navigation App that focused on urban cycling. Today our services range from an online magazine to technical tools which enhance cycling. Our vision is to get more people ride a bike. We achieve this by sharing our passion. If you like the idea of promoting urban cycling, please read on...

These are the key aspects of your role:

- Become an integral member of the editorial and communication team
- Produce, research and edit written material
- Organise and participate in editorial meetings
- Conceptualise and build-up a PR database
- Assist with marketing campaigns and social media targeting
- Strategic content planning

Collaboration

You will work in close cooperation with the editor of the Bike Citizens Magazine, as well as our Communication and PR Manager for the German market. In this internship you'll be at the heart of a rising company that wants to change the way people move in the city. Take the opportunity to learn from us.

Bike Citizens is an independent, self-made company (owned and run by the founders) and we make our own rules. For example we have decided to work only 4 days a week, that means weekends start on Thursday evening! We keep bureaucracy to a minimum and encourage everybody to get involved, which also means bringing in your own ideas and fight for them to get real. We have a strong focus on learning by trying new things and by connecting with others (conferences, workshops).

You would be an ideal match if you:

- Are enrolled or have completed a degree in Communications, Marketing or Journalism
- Are fluent in German and English
- Bring excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Work with attention to detail, confidentially and on your own initiative
- Show interest in topics related to urban mobility
- Have good skills in any of: cooking, Wuzzler, chess ;-)

If that sounds like you - we're dead keen to get to know you!

Salary: This compulsory internship will be rewarded with 450 € gross/month. Renumeration is offered for 36h per week (Monday-Thursday).
